TUTANKHAMUN: Treasures of The Golden Pharaoh

Activity Trail

Age 4-7
Welcome to the Saatchi Gallery!

Today you are going on an adventure to discover Tutankhamun’s journey to the afterlife. But be careful...there is danger everywhere! Use this activity trail as a guide which will help you stay safe from the evil creatures lurking in the underworld...Good luck!

Don’t worry! We will lead the way!

Thot, Bastet, Anubis, Ra
First of all, write down your name or initials using the Hieroglyphics alphabet below.

For example: Vera → V + E + R + A

Your name:

Glad my name is short!
Do not lose this map... you need it for your dangerous journey!

Gallery Map

![Map Diagram]
In the theatre you learn how the story begins...

A long long time ago, an English Egyptologist believed that Tutankhamun and his treasures were hidden somewhere in the Valley.

After 8 years of searching he finally found the mysterious Pharaoh’s tomb.

What is the name of the valley?

What is the Egyptologist’s name?

Which year did the Egyptologist find the Pharaoh’s tomb?

I must record this because I am the God of writing and music!

Can’t believe they really found the Pharaoh!
Before the Pharaoh could go on to his second life, he needed to be prepared.

Search this gallery to find the objects he was buried with. Link up the photograph with the object’s name!

Which one do you like the most?

- Woven gloves
- Cartouche box
- Pen case
After preparation, the Pharaoh’s Ba (soul) had to go on a dangerous journey through twelve gates in order to reach the afterlife. Tutankhamun had spells, weaponry and creatures to help him navigate the danger. Find the objects below; what are they?
One of the gates the Pharaoh’s Ba (soul) had to pass through involves weighing two objects to see if the Pharaoh lived a good life. What objects are weighed? Can you draw them in the boxes?

I will be the judge

I will record the trial

I will eat it if it is too heavy!
You have arrived safely into the underworld! Here you’ll see the Guardian, which stood guard outside the Pharaoh’s tomb. All of his colours have meanings.

Gold = Eternity

Black = Rebirth

Can you draw your own Guardian in this space? What colours would you use?
There are doll like figures called ‘Shabtis’ which came to life when the Pharaoh utters a spell to serve him in the afterlife.

Utter a spell and I’ll come to life!

Write your own magical spell to bring the shabtis to life....
Many beautiful objects were found in Tutankhamun’s tomb. Find and tick off the items below and star your favourite object!
Tutankhamun was forgotten for a long time after his death. His name was removed from important monuments and replaced with other pharaohs' names. See if you can find TUTANKHAMUN below!
Now you have reached the wishing cup! Let’s take a closer look at its meaning...

Blue lotus flower = moment of creation

White lotus flower = moon and sun

Ankh = moment of creation

Heh = God of Eternity
This wishing cup was the first object discovered in Tutankhamun’s tomb! Watch the video and answer the following questions:

I found this cup. My name is ____________________

I found the stairs. My name is ____________________

Now, it’s YOUR turn to reach the cup!
Congratulations you have made it to the end of the journey!
Before you go draw the ten foot tall statue of Tutankhamun!

Soon I will be back home in Egypt. Please share my story and keep my name alive!

You made it!
TUTANKHAMUN
TREASURES OF THE GOLDEN PHARAOH
SAATCHI GALLERY | 2 November 2019 – 3 May 2020
Presented by VIKING